THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Fraction Anthem (in the front section of the Hymnal) S161

All who seek a deeper life in Christ are welcome to receive Holy Communion by moving forward to the altar rail or by remaining in your place and indicating to an usher that you would like to receive. Wine is offered by sipping from the chalice or by dipping your host wafer into the intinction bowl. Alternatively, you are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest. If you are not yet baptized and feel drawn to receive Holy Communion, please speak with a priest about baptism after the service.

“Falling Upward,” by Richard Rohr: A Group Read during July and August, led by Deacon John Doherty.

Meet in the Library July 2 - August 27 at 11:30 am until 12:30 pm.

In Falling Upward, Fr. Richard Rohr seeks to help readers understand the tasks of the two halves of life and to show them that those who have fallen, failed, or "gone down" are the only ones who understand "up." Most of us tend to think of the second half of life as largely about getting old, dealing with health issues, and letting go of life, but the whole thesis of this book is exactly the opposite. What looks like falling down can largely be experienced as "falling upward." In fact, it is not a loss but somehow actually a gain, as we have all seen with elders who have come to their fullness. This group will be of value for everyone but is primarily for those who are in, or nearing, the second half of life. There is, however, never a time too early to reflect on one's life and to grow in wisdom. Available in various formats (large print, kindle) where ever you like to purchase your books. If you need the church to secure a copy for you, please contact Deacon John.
